Northern Marianas College (NMC) offers education and training designed to enable students to acquire the entry-level vocational/technical competencies necessary to enter the workforce. NMC stands behind the training provided and will guarantee tuition free to provide up to eight credits of retraining under the condition that the employer certifies that the student lacks the target job competencies normally expected of an entry-level employee who has graduated from an equivalent vocational/technical program.

To be eligible for retraining, a student must have graduated from NMC with an associate in science or associate in applied science degree, or baccalaureate degree in education.
