

Faculty Senate Meeting
Tuesday, January 27, 2009
8:00 a.m. Human Resource Office

- I. Call to Order 8:15 am
 - a. Attendees: Frank Sobolewski, Larry Lee, Lyte Chapap, Leo Pangelinan, Janice Tenorio, Cynthia Deleon Guerrero, John Jenkins, Joylene Limes, Judy Torres, and Joan Dubrall

- II. Faculty Senate Meeting for Spring Semester 2009
 - a. Will be conducted on Tuesdays at 8:00 a.m. when needed

- III. Faculty Senate elections
 - a. Cynthia Deleon Guerrero will be representing School of Education
 - b. Ballots for Student Services and Academic Programs and Services are due on January 28th
 - c. No appointment or nomination was submitted for the COMPASS department

- IV. At-large positions for Faculty Senate
 - a. Nominations are on-going for at-large position. Last day to submit names is on February 2nd
 - b. Current at-large positions are held by Larry Lee, Lyte Chapap, and Joan Dubrall
 - c. Frank Sobolewski will send out an email reminder to Faculty employees to submit nominations

- V. College Council
 - a. Frank Sobolewski will send out an email to Faculty employees if anyone is interested in representing the Faculty on the College Council
 - b. Topic will be continued at the next Faculty meeting

- VI. Does NMC have enough full-time Faculties?
 - a. Larry Lee stated that the Business Department is short of two faculty positions; Department chair and Accountant instructor
 - i. Accountant instructor is scheduled to arrive on January 31st and start on February 2nd
 - b. Cynthia Deleon Guerrero stated that the School of Education is short of two faculty positions
 - c. Leo Pangelinan stated that the Student Services Division has yet to hire an Academic Librarian and a Disability Counselor
 - d. Frank Sobolewski has two faculty position vacancies which one is scheduled to start in August 2009
 - e. Language department has at least one faculty vacancy
 - f. Topic will continue at the next Faculty Meeting

- VII. Does NMC have enough adjunct faculties?
 - a. Business department has enough adjunct faculties

- b. Social Science has filled positions with adjunct faculties
- VIII. Registration for Spring 2009 successes and areas of improvement
- a. Judy Torres shared an improvement of having access to Power Campus during add and drop week
 - b. Leo Pangelinan expressed concerns about pushing the dead line
 - c. Cynthia Deleon Guerrero shared School of Education's success story by allowing for early registration for graduating students
 - d. Frank Sobolewski stated that the announcement for changes to courses are not being sent out at a timely matter
 - e. Leo Pangelinan suggested to having the power campus course section web based
- IX. Meeting Adjourned: 9:30 am
- X. Next meeting will be held on February 3, 2009. Place will be announced later.