The GEPDAP Tuition Discount is intended to assist qualified CNMI government employees with a fifty-percent (50%) reduction in tuition for enrollment in regular academic courses. An applicant is awarded a discount upon verification of employment status and ineligibility for financial aid. The reduction in tuition is applied to a student's account upon registration (fees are not discounted).

Criteria:

- Employment with the CNMI government. Submit a certification of employment from the CNMI Office of Personnel Management or human resources office of your employer confirming employment within 45 days prior to the start of the term the discount is to be applied.
- Sign and submit the GEPDAP Tuition Discount Request Form. Discount forms are due at noon prior to the first day of regular registration. See the Registration Schedule published by the Office of Admissions and Records for upcoming semester deadlines. Discount forms are required to be submitted each term.
- Complete the Free Application for Federal Financial Aid (FAFSA). Forms will not be approved if an applicant's FAFSA for the current academic year is either incomplete or not submitted by the date the GEPDAP Tuition Discount Request Form is due.
- Submit evidence of ineligibility for CNMI sponsored scholarships or grants. Applicants may submit letters from agencies to demonstrate ineligibility for CNMI financial aid or submit signatures on this form from officials from both the Saipan Higher Education Financial Assistance (SHEFA) program and the CNMI Scholarship Office as evidence of ineligibility for financial assistance from each respective agency/program.

Limitations and conditions:

- GEPDAP applicants may only register for courses on the last day of the registration period during the term in which a discount is to be applied. A late registration fee will be assessed on the students account.
- If an applicant is determined to be eligible for financial aid during the term in which a discount is awarded, the discount will be cancelled and the applicant will be assessed the full amount for tuition for that term.

- GEPDAP Tuition Discounts may only be applied to tuition due in connection to enrollment in regular academic courses. The GEPDAP benefit does not apply to Community Development Institute courses, Adult Basic Education courses, outreach programs, specialized trainings, proposals, Memorandums of Understanding/Agreements or other approved contracts.
- All applicants must be admitted to the College at the time the GEPDAP Tuition Discount form is submitted.
